TRINITY LUTHERAN—9:30 a.m., Sunday school and Bible lessons. Meeting of Bible class, 10:15 a.m., subject, "Promises." Evening, "The God of the Fathers."

CULINARY ORCHESTRATION

The secret of the excellence of French cookery lies in the lavish use of vegetables.

Where the average American uses one kind, French cooks use twenty.

The CHILDS restaurants follow the French custom—they serve a pleasing variety of fresh green vegetables.

Their vegetable dinners are culinary orchestrations—each vegetable retains its individual flavor, yet all blend harmoniously.

As CHILDS, too, one may be a connoisseur, and blend the vegetables to suit his taste.

school has been divided into two sides, the blues and the grays.

Bishop Winchester, of Little Rock, Ark., will preach at Calvary Episcopal church, Second and Poplar, Sunday at the morning hour. Bishop Winchester was formerly rector of Calvary church.

Rev. D. A. Ellis, pastor of LaBelle Baptist church, has just returned from Jackson, Tenn., where he assisted in a most successful revival. Under Dr. Ellis' preaching there were 45 additions to the church.

M. G. Prichard, leader of the twentieth century Bible class, at the Court Avenue Sunday school, will lead the discussion, at 9:45 o'clock, as to whether the voice the boy Samuel heard was objective or subjective. This class had to have a larger room provided to accommodate the numbers. The twentieth century observes a happy social hour every month.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in St. Bridget's church, there will be a procession of all children of the parish, followed by the solemn crowning of the Blessed Mother as Queen of May. Rev. Mr. Murphy, V.G., will deliver the sermon, after which solemn benediction of the most blessed sacrament will be given.

Rev. J. H. Oakley, recently called to the pastorate of the Prescott Memorial Baptist church at Normal, has arrived from Lineville, Ala., where he was pastor of the Baptist church for two years, and will preach here Sunday for the first time.
